

Sky Carter

Sky Carter is a mezzo-soprano from Newport News, Va. She is in her second year at Shenandoah University pursuing her bachelor's degree in vocal performance while studying with Dr. Fotina Naumenko. While at Shenandoah, she has done a master class with world-renowned mezzo-soprano Denyce Graves. Sky has also performed in multiple Shenandoah University productions such as A Midsummer Night's Dream by Benjamin Britten as a fairy, and Caged Birds a disciplinary project with works by Missy Mazzoli and Ratniece Claybird. She has also opened for Vickie Winian with Shenandoah University's Harambee gospel choir. In the spring of 2024, she will be performing in Shenandoah's production of Moscow Cheryomushki by Dmitri Shostakovich, where she will portray the role of Kurochkina.
