

Sofia Stankiewicz

Sofia Stankiewicz is a Junior Vocal Performance major at Shenandoah Conservatory. She is in the studio of Dr. Fotina Naumenko and has been studying classical voice for ten years. Recent Opera credits include Mustardseed in A Midsummer Night's Dream (ShenCo), Emmie in Albert Herring (Harrower Opera Workshop in Atlanta, GA), and Second Lady in Die Zauberflöte (Harrower Opera Workshop in Atlanta, GA). She has received many awards and scholarships throughout the beginning stages of her career both in her hometown of Reading, Pa. and in the Shenandoah Community. Sofia is a section leader at Trinity Episcopal Church in Upperville, Va., and soprano section leader in the Arts Chorale of Winchester. She would like to thank her friends at SU and around the country for their constant encouragement in all her endeavors, and most importantly her parents, family, and boyfriend, Jonathan, for their love and support in everything she pursues.
